

J. Robert Lowenbach, J.D.

Judge Lowenbach is a ChildTrauma Fellow, a Senior Judge for the State of Colorado, and a consultant dedicated to improving court and agency practice for dependent children and their families. Prior to his retirement in January 2009, he was a District Court Judge in Greeley, Colorado. During most of his 27 years as a judicial officer, he presided over family matters and served on local and statewide committees to improve the administration of justice for families and children. At the time of his retirement he was the Lead Judge of the Weld County Model Court through the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges Victims Act Model Court project.

Judge Lowenbach remains as a member of the Court Improvement Program for the State of Colorado and was a member of the National Training Team of the National Center on State Courts initiative to help courts address implicit bias in state courts. He trains child welfare professionals extensively. He co-authored Kinship Care: A Guide for Judges, Attorneys and Court Participants with Dr. Barbara Wirth and has written a number of curricula for child welfare professionals.
